Membership Application Form, Terms, and Conditions:

Membership rules and conditions:

- 1. All members are expected to attend and participate in all Cherry Valley Bowhunters (CVBH) functions. However, it is understood that many times members may have other priorities that they must attend to aside from CVBH activities. Therefore, membership along with attendance and participation will be formatted into a point based system for your annual membership dues.
- 2. All NEW members must pay a one-time introductory fee of $85.00 for individual memberships or $100.00 for family memberships which will include their 1st year working member dues.
 - See the table on page 3 for all membership dues:
 - NOTE: Junior memberships DO NOT receive an indoor access code
 - If the new member is a CBH member, they will receive a $5.00 discount toward their membership each year including their new membership dues.
 - After the first year's membership, annual membership fees will be either by a working or associate membership scale.
 - New members joining after March each year will receive a prorated membership fee. Annual working membership point values will also be prorated for that first year only.
- 3. In order to receive the minimum annual individual working dues of $70.00 per year, each individual must earn a total of 100 work points for the year from February 1st through February 1st of the following year. If the 100 work point total is not earned, then that individual must pay the associate members' dues of $200.00 the following year/s in order to remain a member of CVBH and be allowed to utilize its facilities.
 - Note: once an associate member receives the 100 work point minimum, they can once again reestablish a working member's annual dues for the following year.
 - Junior members must also participate to earn 100 points for the year to remain as a junior member status.
 - Family point values will be 200 total points per family for the year.
- 4. Membership work point values for all events will be awarded by the membership chairman or designee for each event.
 - Membership chairman will total all point values per member for the year to determine if the member remains a working member or becomes an associate member the following year.
 - Although points earned are given by the membership chairman, the entire CVBH board may take a vote to overrule the membership chairman's decision if necessary.
 - Any member not meeting the required points to maintain a working membership status (as calculated by the membership chairman) will be reviewed by the CVBH board to determine if they will be allowed to maintain working membership status or must become an associate member the following year to stay as a CVBH member.

- 5. Points toward working membership in CVBH can be earned but are not limited to the following:
- a. Attendance and participation in monthly CVBH meetings – 5 points per meeting
 - i. Meetings are held on the first Tuesday of each month
 - ii. 10 meetings possible per year. No meetings in January or September; these are hunting months.
 - b. Attendance and participation in CVBH scheduled work parties – 10 points each maximum
 - i. Work parties are scheduled throughout the year as needed. Typically, prior to shoots, but can also be for general range maintenance or target repair.
 - c. Be a CVBH club officer/board member – 20 points per year maximum
 - i. Maintain and uphold the duties of each position held throughout the year.
 - d. CVBH target maintenance – 20 points per year maximum
 - i. We currently have a 14-target course that may be expanded to 28 targets in the future.
 - ii. We should have multiple members assigned to each target on our range including practice range and indoor facility
 - iii. Club officers will not be held responsible for maintaining targets on the range
 - 1. Range Captain or Assistant Range Captain will routinely assess target conditions and report to the member/s responsible and the membership chairman
 - iv. Maintenance includes, but is not limited to:
 - 1. Cleaning around stakes, lanes, bales, etc.
 - 2. Maintaining the integrity of the stakes, lanes, bales, etc.
 - e. Attendance and participation in the working of CVBH tournaments except Big Bear. – 25 points each maximum
 - i. Target or range layout, set-up, take-down, clean-up, etc.
 - ii. Work a refreshment stand, registration, clouts, etc.
 - f. Attendance and participation in the working of the Annual Big Bear Shoot – Up to 50 points
 - i. Tournament is held the first weekend of August annually
 - 1. This may be up to a 3 or 4-day commitment (Friday-Sunday possibly the Thursday prior to the shoot)
 - ii. Target or range layout, set-up, take-down, clean-up, etc.
 - iii. Work a refreshment stand, registration, clout, raffle, etc.
 - g. Miscellaneous help with CVBH activities – Up to 10 points each
 - i. These activities may be added for individuals either by other board members upon or by the membership chairman by a majority board approval.
